June 5 Sunday – Old Gaffe’s Festival, Yarmouth, IOW.

Organiser: Phil Powell (0789 636 6387)

We'll catch the train for this event early on Sunday morning so we can arrive at Yarmouth at about 11.20 ish. The rail ticket includes the ferry crossing if you book the destination as 'Yarmouth'. Regular return from Poole is £20.10, but you can get a group saving of four adults for the price of two if you book at the train station, so only £10 each.

Sue & I will be on the 9.32 from Poole, which calls at Parkstone (our stop) 9.36, Branksome 9.40, Bournemouth 9.46 to arrive at Yarmouth at 11.20.

You can get there earlier or later, just give me call when you arrive. A great place to meet up is the Royal Solent Yacht Club, so you can see the races and enjoy a leisurely drink. Best to bring a picnic and of course good weather.

See website www.yarmoutholdgaffesfestival.co.uk for more details

July 3rd Sunday - Wayfarer Picnic

Organiser Colin May

The first date that I intend to try the picnic this year is Sunday, the 26th June. I am starting earlier this year so as we could have a fallback date if the weather is foul or a second picnic if we feel like it.

We shall meet at the club for a departure at 11am to places as yet unknown.

I will this year be taking a small inflatable as my mode of transport and intend to give you all a lookout from it as we have in the past.

I also will take a gas BBQ with me for a change and invite you all to bring along anything you would like to cook on it. My thinking is, a small amount each of sausages or similar to supplement your picnic with something warm.

The BBQ is not so large but we can have a something each.

So if you would like to come on a family and friends sail with picnic thrown in as long as you bring it, please let me know via E Mail (colinemay-at-hotmail.co.uk) so I can have an idea who to lookout for on the day.
